

SCHOOLS CRICKET IN 1982

The English Schools Cricket Association Under-19 team was undefeated in 1982. After their convincing eight-wicket victory over HMC Schools at Eastbourne, the same team met Welsh Schools at Pontardulais in the first game of the triangular Michael Gerard Schools "Test" Series. England had the better of a drawn game, featuring in their first innings a second-wicket stand of 98 between H. Morris, an accomplished left-hander, and N. Folland and a third-wicket stand of 72 between Morris and N. H. Fairbrother. Wales were troubled by the pace of R. A. Pick, and after Morris and Fairbrother had contributed an unbroken partnership of 136, Fairbrother reaching 84 in even time, Wales made no attempt to make 240 in 75 minutes plus twenty overs. Pick took his match return to seven for 84.

When English Schools met West Indies Young Cricketers at Fenner's, the Schools achieved an honourable draw after West Indies YC, chasing 247 in three hours, had managed only 181 for six. Batting first, English Schools reached 200, and then reduced their opponents to 128 for seven before a recovery took them to 229. English Schools' second innings was held together by Morris's 100, which took five hours, while for the West Indians S. Pragg took five wickets for the second time in the match with his left-arm Chinamen and googlies. G. R. Cowdrey, injured, was unable to play, but represented HMC Schools two days later in the rain-affected drawn match against the touring side at Bedford School, when he and N. J. Lenham bowled well after M. P. Hickson broke down. A. Fordham, W. J. P. Matthews and Lenham batted resolutely against the excellent spin of R. Haynes and the slow left-arm bowling of D. Cumberbatch before Cowdrey made a telling contribution.

Scotland CU Colts, having defeated Wales, needed only to draw with English Schools to win the Michael Gerard Series, when they met at West Bromwich Dartmouth. England, put in, declared at 200 for one, after Morris (103 not out) and M. R. Gouldstone (83 not out) had added 180 for the second wicket. Scotland were dismissed for 119 and again for 171 after England had declared a second time at 185 for three. Pick returned match figures of seven for 53, and England's victory by 95 runs gave them the series.

The batting of the England side was generally superior to the bowling with Morris outstanding, well supported by Fairbrother, a promising stroke-player. Gouldstone fulfilled his potential as an opening bat, and N. Folland, G. D. Rose and G. V. Palmer all made useful contributions. Of the bowlers, Pick was the quickest, Rose achieved most movement through the air, A. K. Golding had the best individual performance with five for 38 at Lord's, and the most interesting was the leg-spin of R. C. Talbot, who bowled the most overs. Helped by good fielding and catching and the excellent wicket-keeping of P. Gill, the bowlers were never totally mastered by opponents. Again, under the unobtrusive captaincy of Morris, team spirit was always high.

ESCA v HMC SCHOOLS

At The Saffrons, Eastbourne, July 19, 20. ESCA won by eight wickets. Electing to bat, HMC Schools made a steady start until Talbot took three wickets in two overs and, despite some resistance from Robins, Pick and Waring demolished the tail, five wickets falling for 3 runs. ESCA compiled a lead of 135 in their 60 overs, thanks to Morris, Gouldstone and Fairbrother, whose 85 not out came in 97 minutes. A contrasting innings was seen from Matthews when HMC Schools batted again. He took three and a half hours over his first 50 and reached his hundred in four and a half hours. Other useful scores came from Lenham, Ansell and Fordham as the Schools offered greater resistance than in their first innings. However, it was not enough, and the target of 123 in almost two hours was comfortably achieved by ESCA with 23 balls to spare.

Reports from the Schools

Abingdon, with wins over St Bartholomews, Newbury, Berkhamsted, RGS Colchester, Bloxham and Douai, were encouraged by the performance of fifteen-year-old M. T. Boobyer, who marked his début by scoring 106 v MCC. Alley's, whose bowlers often failed to consolidate on a sound start from the batsmen, reported a disappointing season, as did Allhallows, whose captain, P. M. B. Zealey, headed the batting averages. All-rounders P. M. Tuck and T. J. B. Dutton-Cox did well with bat and ball, and the side's strength lay in the bowling, J. P. Knapman's leg-spinners providing welcome variety and the young E. R. M. Gard making an impressive début as an opening bowler. An inexperienced Ampleforth side, which defeated Stonyhurst, Pocklington and Bootham, scored more than 3,000 runs in a season for only the second time in the school's history, although the bowling lacked bite. Arnold School, with wins v King's Macclesfield, Kirkham GS, Baines and Ipswich, owed much to P. A. Webb, whose two hundreds were the first for the side in ten years and who took 38 wickets with his medium-pace bowling.

Bablake, unbeaten by a school for the fourth consecutive season, retained the Warwickshire and Birmingham Under-19 Cup, also for the fourth time in succession. Seven of the XI were in the side that won the Barclays Bank ESCA Under-17 National Cup from an entry of 300 schools, while W. J. P. Matthews represented HMC Schools and, with all-rounder G. Charlesworth and D. A. Thorne, played for Warwickshire Second XI. Matthews took his aggregate for the First XI to a school record of 2,469. An experienced Bancroft's side enjoyed a successful season, with S. W. Gant turning in match-winning performances with bat and ball. All-rounder I. P. Debnam played a faultless unbeaten 104 v Incogniti and M. G. de Jode's unbeaten 141 v Forest School broke his own school record. W. J. Head, a colt playing in the first XI, batted with considerable maturity and skill. With a strong batting side, Barnard Castle School were encouraged by wins over Pocklington and Strathallan, although with M. Coates unable to bowl fast, the attack lacked penetration. Enjoyable tours took the side to the Isle of Man, Scotland and the Midlands.

Despite the absence of any outstanding performances, Bedford School enjoyed a successful season. The fielding was excellent, with many difficult catches held. Their nine victories included those v The Leys, Haileybury, Stowe, Uppingham, Repton and Bedford Modern School, who none the less achieved a record nine wins, including those v Kimbolton, Wesley College, Manchester GS, Bedfordshire Colts, Loughborough GS, Wolverhampton GS and RGS Worcester. The batting was dominated by A. Fordham, who played for HMC Schools v ESCA and v Young West Indies, as well as for Bedfordshire. His aggregate of 1,042 was a school record and included three centuries in eight days – 146 v Oundle, 114 v Old Bedford Modernians and 110 v Wolverhampton GS – as well as 95 not out v Clare College, Cambridge. The attack was more hostile than of late, led by captain A. K. G. Jones (right-arm medium) and J. O. R. Jones (right-arm fast), while the emergence of off-spinner P. A. Garratt gave encouragement for the future.

Berkhamsted ended an otherwise disappointing season with wins v Framlingham, Kimbolton and St Lawrence at the Ramsgate Festival. Captain B. G. Evans, who scored two centuries, was given sound support by J. R. Neal (left-hand opening bat and right-arm fast-medium bowler) and played for The Rest v Southern Schools. Birkenhead, who had exciting drawn games v Liverpool College, King's Macclesfield and William Hulme's GS, recorded eight wins under the captaincy of right-hand bat and off-spinner S. M. Holroyd, who played for Northamptonshire Second XI. He received valuable support from off-spinner S. McGowan, while M. P. Gamet topped the batting averages and shared in four century opening stands with P. C. Barber. Outstanding fielding, notably that of G. E. B. Swayne, and the leadership of G. K. Smith were the key to wins by a young Bishop's Stortford College side over The Perse, Kimbolton, Framlingham and Hymer's College. Lacking the bowling to secure many victories, Bloxham's powerful batting side featured centuries from captain T. J. Abraham v Bromsgrove and Hipperholme.

The season at Blundell's, unbeaten for the second successive year and whose victories included those v Clifton, Oundle and Ampleforth, was notable for the contribution of captain and left-hand bat H. Morris, who played for Glamorgan in the County Championship, MCC Schools and NAYC. His 1,032 runs were 569 more than the next highest aggregate and included three hundreds as well as nine other innings over 50. He also took 25 wickets (right-arm medium), including a return of six for 53 v Sherborne. Also bowling well were A. Morris (medium), off-spinner M. C. Coe and H. B. Day (medium), who took five for 18 v Taunton. The leading batsman for Bradfield College was opener M. J. Gent, a respected captain whose aggregate of 1,401 over three years is the highest since G. R. J. Roope's 1,846 in 1962-64. The batting was otherwise disappointing, but bowling intelligently on all types of wicket, A. J. Johnston (right-arm medium away-swing) took 44 wickets and was well supported in the field. A positive approach characterised a young Bradford GS side, who were rewarded with seven wins. The batting was sound – notably that of S. T. Firth and C. J. Hewitt – and the weakness was in their failure to bowl out the opposition, opening bowlers T. Welsh and A. M. Broadbent lacking consistent support.

High points of a disappointing season for Brentwood were an opening partnership of 116 between P. Preston and left-hander M. Wedge as well as the fast-medium bowling of S. C. Smith, who came into the side in June to top the averages. He returned six for 27 in the victory over Incogniti. A young Brighton College side, moulded into a formidable team by captain S. C. B. Withers, achieved a record twelve wins. J. A. Gorton (fast-medium) took 49 wickets and N. J. Lenham was outstanding with 34 wickets and 1,076 runs, breaking the school record which had stood since 1935. He played for HMC Schools and Sussex Second XI. The brightest feature for Bristol GS was the batting of D. J. Woolley, whose aggregate of 672 runs was more than three times the next highest and included two hundreds. Bromsgrove School, whose only win was over Wrekin, depended much on left-hander D. M. Meredith with the bat and S. W. Williams with the ball. The XL Club, Dauntsey's, Milton Abbey, Kingswood and Canford were defeated by the Bryanston side, who were never bowled out. G. Binns, in his first season, was selected for Southern Schools Under-16 XI.

A young Canford side, with victories v King's Taunton, Downside and King's Bruton, relied heavily on their captain, M. D. Smith, who scored twice as many runs as anyone else, including two hundreds, and who played for Southern Schools v The Rest. A return of seven for 50 v Bradfield by P. G. Edwards (slow left-arm) emphasised his considerable promise. For Charterhouse, a disappointing start to the season was overcome by wins v Portsmouth, Winchester and Westminster. The middle order could not match the consistency of openers C. A. Anderson and D. M. Bennett, although P. R. Durnford gave evidence that he is an exciting prospect. R. J. Rogers took 41 wickets with his left-arm spin and, with P. D. Newman (left-arm fast-medium) who took 46, provided a varied and penetrating attack. The Cheltenham College attack, sensibly handled by captain P. C. D. Sykes, regularly bowled out opponents, and with E. A. H. P. Rowland, R. P. W. Thompson and H. D. E. Evans excellent run-chasers, some notable victories were achieved, including those v Repton and Clifton.

In a season of rebuilding, Christ College, Brecon, were encouraged to win nine matches, thanks largely to captain and all-rounder S. W. Harvey, who captained the Welsh Schools and whose unbeaten 102 out of 149 v Bromsgrove deserves mention. Positive cricket was played by a young Christ's Hospital side, who were let down by erratic batting. However, the bowling was steady, with K. M. Cook taking eight for 55 v Lancing and M. R. Joyner returning seven for 69 v Sussex Martlets. A tour to Bermuda, where four matches were won, ended the season for Clifton College, whose C. W. V. Robins played for HMC Schools. Brittle batting hampered an inexperienced Colfe's School side, for whom captain A. Rodgers opened the bowling effectively, enjoying a haul of 49 wickets. Colston's School attributed their success v Bristol GS, Bristol Cathedral School and Dauntsey's to the prolific batting of W. M. Smith, captain N. H. Parnell and L. M. Roll, whose 757 runs were a school record.

In a mediocre season for Dauntsey's, only their captain, J. D. Livingstone, shone, batting well and bowling his off-breaks to good effect. Dean Close, too, had a disappointing season, though two sixteen-year-olds showed promise: P. M. Vincent with the bat and R. N. K. O. A. Lindsay (fast-medium) with the ball. Some exciting drawn matches enlivened the season of Denstone College, whose attack lacked sufficient depth to back up the penetrative spells of A. J. Little. A highlight was the win v a South African touring team from Woodridge College. A tidy and varied attack, backed by sound fielding, encouraged Dover College in a transitional year, but the batting too often revealed its lack of experience. Downside, without a win, entertained Wesley College, Australia. Durham, unbeaten by a school, achieved a record ten wins, among them v Fettes, Pocklington, Ashville, St Bees, Norwich and Merchiston. Their strength was in depth, although the averages were dominated by captain N. P. Tubbs (slow left-arm) and fifteen-year-old M. A. Roseberry, whose aggregate of 839 runs was more than double the next highest and who took the most wickets with his right-arm medium bowling.

The batting of Eastbourne College was stylishly led by J. R. Prentis and left-hander M. H. Edwardes-Evans, whose opening stand of 122 contributed to the defeat of Lancing in the final of the Sussex Schools Knockout Cup. Another highlight was M. O. Simpson's unbeaten century v Sussex Martlets. A limited attack was spearheaded by Prentis (fast-medium), well supported by J. C. Wallace (medium) and colt S. R. Davis (slow left-arm). For Edinburgh Academy, whose wins included those v Barnard Castle, Loretto and QEGS Wakefield, left-arm spinner B. J. M. Clube collected 52 wickets in his first season, including seven for 42 v Oxford University Authentics. I. D. Zuill hit a maiden century v Mill Hill and G. R. Mawdsley, who had a fine all-round season, formed a successful opening partnership with his brother, R. A. Mawdsley. A well-balanced Ellesmere College side were ably led by wicket-keeper A. I. Crow, who recorded eleven catches and nine stumpings. In the victory v William Hulme's GS, T. J. R. Petty scored an unbeaten 80 out of 160 before G. L. Home took seven for 12.

A memorable season for Eltham College brought seventeen wins, with captain M. R. Surguy and M. J. Holcombe becoming the most prolific batsmen in the school's history, aggregating 1,159 and 1,039 runs respectively. Holcombe's 155 not out v St Dunstan's was a school record, as were wicket-keeper R. J. Hunt's 64 dismissals (50ct, 14st) in three years. An inexperienced Emanuel side, whose twelve wins included those v Reigate GS and RGS Guildford, were runners-up in both the London Schools and Surrey Schools knockout competitions. The absence of all-rounder R. Carter, with a broken leg, for much of the season hampered a young Enfield GS side, whose sound fielding and bowling were not matched by some fragile batting. None the less, wins were recorded v Chigwell, Colchester

RGS, Latymer, St Albans and Watford GS.

Three new records set for Epsom College were an aggregate of 1,013 runs by captain R. M. C. Williams, a first-wicket partnership of 202 from J. R. Ansell and M. B. Finnigan, and a fourth-wicket stand of 157 between Finnigan and R. V. Williams. Ansell was selected for the Southern Schools and R. M. C. Williams captained Surrey Schools. M. J. Morris showed tremendous stamina in the attack, while D. G. Henwood, moving the ball both ways, created problems for opposing batsmen. Eton, unbeaten, recorded eight wins, among them those v Bradfield, Marlborough and Winchester. The strength of the side lay in bowling out the opposition, M. V. Fleming, a hard-hitting opening bat and prolific swing bowler, dominating in both respects and captain C. A. Watt bowling his off-spin maturely for 33 wickets. Although the bowlers of Exeter School sometimes struggled to dismiss their opponents, their batsmen, led by captain P. Hodgson, often successfully chased large targets in their most successful season for some years.

Felsted, unbeaten by a school, owed much to openers J. P. Stephenson and A. B. Mitchell, who compiled five century opening stands, 176 being the highest. Selected for Southern Schools was B. H. Pinkerton (left-arm orthodox spin), who led the attack, ably supported by Stephenson and A. J. Haynes. The fielding was sound, inspired by the outstanding wicket-keeping of M. W. C. Olley, who, with Stephenson, played for HMC Schools. A win over MCC was a highlight for Fettes College, who also defeated The Leys. Forest School, with wins v Brentwood, City of London, RGS Colchester, Chigwell, St Edmunds Canterbury and Wellingborough, could recall with satisfaction the performance of fourteen-year-old M. D. I. Sheppard, whose 501 runs included an unbeaten century.

The strength of the Glenalmond side lay in its team spirit under the outstanding captaincy of left-hand bat J. Everett, who scored fine hundreds v Fettes and Strathallan. S. J. Lewis (off-spin) and M. H. Alexander (slow left-arm) took many wickets as wins were recorded v Merchiston Castle, Loretto, Downside, RGS Lancaster, MCC, the XL Club and Christ's College, Cambridge. Everett played for Scotland Under-19, while J. Sutton captained and A. M. Stevenson played for Scotland Under-16. Memorable in an enjoyable season for Giggleswick School were all-rounder J. B. Newsome's leadership and R. M. White's 131 not out v Hipperholme. Gordonstoun's young side were encouraged by the performance of leading wicket-taker K. M. Mordue (slow left-arm) and captain R. P. J. Heyes's unbeaten century v The Abbey School, Fort Augustus.

An enjoyable winter tour to Sri Lanka, with three matches won and three lost, preceded a season in which Haberdashers' Aske's, Elstree, were defeated by a school – Bancroft's – for the first time in five years, although nine wins followed. The batting was strong, with valuable contributions from N. J. Wood, D. J. Price, N. J. Churchman and left-hander A. J. Moulding, while the bowling, led by Moulding (right-arm in-swing) improved considerably. An enjoyable aspect of the Haileybury attack was the leg-spin of T. P. Jackson-Feilden, ably backed by wicket-keeper S. L. Feast, who made fourteen stumpings. J. E. Harding was a mature captain and led the batting. Hampton School, astutely captained by E. M. Turnill, played positive cricket to remain unbeaten by a school. Turnill and T. R. Eastaugh played match-winning innings, and there was much pleasure to be taken from the controlled slow left-arm spin of fifteen-year-old J. Shepherd.

Unbeaten for a second successive season, Harrow boasted a strong batting side, but the attack often lacked penetration, as did that of Highgate School, for whom A. C. Fawden took six for 32 v Old Cholmeleians. Hereford Cathedral School, in a season curtailed by the poor weather, had several matches which were in an interesting position when time ran out. Hipperholme GS began the season with convincing wins v Bradford GS and Woodhouse Grove, but later the attack failed to capitalise on the consistent batting of D. F. Rayner, R. S. Butterworth and left-hander K. D. Booth, who was also a sound wicket-keeper. Hurstpierpoint followed a winter tour of India with wins v Whitgift and Worth, but other opportunities were missed owing to inconsistent batting and wayward bowling. Exceptions were J. B. Buckeridge and M. D. Foulds, who scored the side's only century, and G. J. Alexander, who returned seven for 34 v Whitgift. A young and inexperienced Ipswich School side made considerable progress during the season, T. Rollett developing into a sound opening bat to score the school's only three-figure innings. S. Priscott (left-arm medium) showed promise, his 25 wickets including seven for 45 v Gresham's, while

J. Nicholls emerged as an accurate off-spin bowler who also batted tenaciously.

Apart from S. A. Sharpe, who was outstanding with both bat and ball, Kimbolton's batting was disappointing. The fielding, however, was competent and the bowling adequate, with P. A. J. Brittain (slow left-arm) taking six for 25 v MCC. A. W. Gilbert, captain of King Edward VI School, Southampton, scored his maiden century for the school and captained Hampshire Schools, while wicket-keeper R. P. Headington played for West of England Schools and Hampshire Schools. King Edward VI College, Stourbridge, owed their success to a strong attack, headed by D. J. Bullock and off-spinner D. J. Shorter, who took six for 46 for Midland Schools v The North and was selected for England Schools v The Army. Notable batsmen were D. M. Anderson and opener R. N. Tolley.

For King Edward VII School, Lytham, G. Cartmell scored 107 v Solihull School, against whom A. Thornton made 104, reaching three figures with two consecutive 6s. Of the bowlers, A. Gregson and J. Evans (both fast) and N. D. W. McDonnell (off-spin) excelled. With wins v Wrekin, Solihull and Denstone, King Edward's School, Birmingham, depended heavily on all-rounders M. K. Hughes and C. Ibbetson. N. A. Willets, who scored the school's only hundred, played for ESCA Under-15 v Scotland. King William's College, Isle of Man, reported a disappointing season in which lack of a penetrative attack frustrated a strong batting side, for whom opener S. C. Watson scored two centuries. In a successful season, King's College, Taunton, defeated Wellington (Somerset), the XL Club, Queen's Taunton, MCC, Taunton School, Allhallows, Monmouth and Downside. Their strength lay in the bowling, with R. J. Harden (left-arm medium) taking 48 wickets, including a hat-trick v Queen's Taunton, a feat also performed by H. D. Wordsworth (right-arm medium) v Christ's Hospital. The forceful batting was led by Harden, who passed 90 on three occasions; he received valuable support from left-hander N. D. Everest, who also kept wicket.

King's College School, Wimbledon, owed their success to all-round depth, although notable performances came from J. H. Frost with the bat and N. P. Montgomery and fifteen-year-old P. S. Noble with the ball. Careless fielding hampered King's School, Bruton, for whom I. C. D. Stuart and R. C. Gainher scored the most runs, while Stuart and P. F. McIntyre were the leading wicket-takers. The King's School, Canterbury, defeated only by Sutton Valence, fielded a strong batting side, featuring P. G. Bromley, D. J. R. Hildick-Smith and P. J. Cranston-Smith, and a varied attack, with leg-spinner R. W. G. Oliver taking the most wickets. Wicket-keeper P. J. Whyte's performances encouraged good displays in the field. The King's School, Ely, also defeated only once, were indebted to the all-round excellence of T. S. May (right-hand bat and right-arm off-spin), whose 103 v Ely Diocese was their highest innings. J. P. Hulme, captain and opening bowler (right-arm in-swing) followed a fine season by playing for Cambridgeshire Under-19. In the junior section, eleven-year-old R. Bickell hit 30 runs in one over off Mr T. King in the match v the Fathers. In a season of rebuilding, P. A. Manning was outstanding for The King's School, Macclesfield.

King's School, Worcester, were disappointed to win only one match, their problem being mainly an inability to bowl out the opposition. The performance of J. S. Fleming appeared to suffer from his responsibilities as captain, and of the batsmen only D. P. E. Rogers played consistently. A young Kingston GS side were encouraged to win five matches, including one by four wickets v Tiffin as part of a sponsored contest in aid of the Lord's Taverners' Charities. Three centuries resulted from enterprising batting, two by D. E. Jenkins and one by S. H. Clayton. The outstanding bowler was R. C. Marshall (left-arm medium), backed up by captain S. J. Nicholls (medium).

Lancing College's record twelve wins included defeats of Charterhouse, Brighton College, Free Foresters and MCC. Off-spinner C. S. Mays took a record 58 wickets, while A. N. McPherson also had a rewarding season. Fifteen-year-old left-hander J. D. Robinson's 700 runs were the highest aggregate since 1957 and considerable depth to the batting came from J. G. Wills, I. C. Martin, J. J. S. Withyman and wicket-keeper C. P. Heaslip, the only member of the side not expected to return in 1983. An unbeaten tour to the Channel Islands was enjoyed in the summer. Positive cricket brought Leeds GS ten wins, among them those v Hipperholme GS, QEGS Wakefield, Ashville College, Bootham and Archbishop Holgate GS, York. Their innings were given a sound start from J. K. Bowman and A. F. Tyler, who reached three figures twice. A. M. Watson took six for 5 v Silcoates School and four wickets in five balls v Archbishop Holgate GS.

The batting of The Leys was the strongest for some years, notable performances coming from G. C. Mackintosh (90 v The Perse) and J. D. R. Benson, who made 110 not out v the XL Club and whose 90 v Highgate came in 80 minutes, with eight 6s. He also captained HMC Schools Under-15. A successful Liverpool College side, who held their catches well, owed much to the formidable opening partnership of D. M. Fletcher and P. D. Williams, as well as the opening attack of T. F. Groom and Williams. A young Lord Wandsworth College side received encouragement from the performances of T. R. Jermyn (left-hand bat and right-arm off-spinner). Another young side, Lord Williams's School, Thame, were less successful, depending too heavily on S. J. Lewis. For Loretto, captain D. J. M. Orr excelled, making 105 not out v George Heriot's and taking five for 22 v Glenalmond.

Two all-rounders, S. Mendes and M. Barrow, headed the averages for Magdalen College School, who were planning a tour of the West Indies. Barbados-born R. M. Ellcock was outstanding for Malvern College, taking five wickets in an innings on six occasions, including returns of six for 31 v Dean Close, six for 41 v Radley and six for 57 v Clifton College. He played county cricket for Worcestershire and represented HMC Schools. Leading bowlers for Manchester GS were M. A. P. Jefferson and captain S. C. Williams, while the side's only three-figure innings came from R. E. Johnston v Arnold School. A potentially strong Marlborough side, who could none the less muster only one win, were let down by fragile middle-order batting and an attack which was rarely more than steady. The batting of a young Merchant Taylors', Crosby, side was disappointing, with only fifteen-year-old M. J. Cooke passing fifty. The bowling, often inaccurate, was led by D. J. Walmsley (slow right-arm) and L. N. J. Heathcliff-Core (left-arm fast-medium), while M. J. Clinton took six for 30 v Liverpool College. Some excellent catches were taken, particularly by D. H. Cooke at first slip.

Merchant Taylors', Northwood, unbeaten for the second successive season, owed their success to all-round strength. A strong batting side was invariably given a sound start by openers S. P. Ducat and left-hander D. J. Jenkins, who shared two century stands. Five accurate and attacking bowlers, who gave the opposition no respite, were backed by superb fielding inspired by Jenkins behind the stumps. Merchiston Castle School reported a disappointing season, with the side too often bowled out cheaply. Opening batsman J. E. Hamilton distinguished himself v Edinburgh Academy, when he was on the field throughout, scoring 74 not out and 47 not out. The seam bowling was rarely incisive enough and D. A. G. Watson (slow left-arm orthodox) and N. S. Hockborn (off-breaks) were often introduced too late to be effective. For Mill Hill opening bat P. A. Robin averaged 70.85 and was unfortunate to miss 1,000 runs for the school season.

A successful Millfield side owed much to all-rounder P. A. C. Bail, who represented ESCA West. Although the middle-order batting tended to be fragile, J. E. M. Nicholson made three centuries, and of the bowlers the accurate N. Brown deserved more success. A young Milton Abbey side often failed to sustain a sound start from promising opening batsmen J. M. Hopkins and N. J. Coppen, but they did reach the fifth round of the Barclays Bank Under-17 Cup. Leading bowlers were fifteen-year-old R. W. Gamble (fast-medium) and captain C. W. Moyle, whose right-arm leg-spin was both a match-winner and served to keep other matches interestingly open. The talented players of Monkton Combe School often failed to play to their full potential, although I. G. Osborne emerged as a fine all-rounder and S. A. M. Prentice played some fine attacking innings. Inability to bowl out the opposition often restricted Monmouth School, for whom captain K. G. Lewis made 119 not out v Christ College Brecon. All-rounder M. F. Kear captained the Welsh Under-15 side.

Norwich School's season, which featured a win by 3 runs v Gresham's, was rounded off with a tour to Durham, where the maturity of S. P. Bowling and P. D. Nicholls was supported by the promise of fourteen-year-old N. J. Foster with both bat and ball. The Nottinghamshire High School side, who equalled the school record of sixteen wins, played attractive, attacking cricket, ably led by R. Poole, whose 895 runs included two hundreds.

For Oundle, who defeated Mill Hill and St Edward's Oxford, a weak middle order failed to support openers A. S. A. Townsend and left-hander D. C. Boyce. Apart from leg-spinner J. S. Carr, the attack lacked penetration. For The Perse School, whose only win came v RGS Newcastle, J. M. C. Stenner was in fine form with the bat. Aggressive cricket brought Pocklington School eleven wins: J. D. St J. Lang and R. T. Nuttall were reliable opening batsmen and R. M. Aram (slow left-arm) established a school record with 69 wickets. Another fine season for Queen's College, Taunton, featured the all-round performance of G. V. Palmer, son of Test umpire Ken Palmer, who headed both batting and bowling averages and made his debut for Somerset. Also outstanding with bat and ball was P. Graham.

Highlights for Radley were wins v Sherborne, St Edward's, Abingdon and Free Foresters, against whom R. G. Butler scored 111. Captain G. D. Moss, son of Alan Moss (Middlesex and England) played for HMC Schools and for Middlesex Under-25. With L. S. N. George he formed the side's best opening attack for over a decade, but the later bowlers failed to prise out opposing tailenders. E. J. B. Popplewell (brother of Somerset's N.F.M.) was a talented wicket-keeper-batsman. A season of rebuilding for Ratcliffe College ended with a successful tour to Blackpool. Above-average fielding supported notable performances from D. M. Prior, who scored 101 v Hutton GS, and P. W. Tarimo, with seven for 26 v Cotton College. Reading School relied heavily on captain E. P. O'Leary, who headed both batting and bowling averages and took five for 16 v Abingdon, the only school to be beaten by the side.

A young Reed's School side performed better than expected, thanks mainly to the accurate slow bowling of captain M. R. Dunn (off-spin) and C. R. Notton (leg-spin). The batting was steady, with opening bat G. A. Hatton excelling. A successful tour to the Channel Islands ended the season for Reigate GS, whose attack was often handicapped by injuries. Two all-rounders were outstanding – C. M. Allen and left-arm wrist-spinner P. W. Gritton. A weak attack brought Repton a frustrating season in which no school was beaten. The most successful batsman was C. Benn, while captain T. R. Barlow took 22 catches behind the stumps. Highlights for Rossall were victories v Sedbergh, Stonyhurst and Arnold School. R. I. Kanhai led the team by example, heading both batting and bowling averages, and was given valuable support by K. C. Stiles (right-arm fast-medium).

Royal GS, Newcastle, with a young side, had an encouraging season. Apart from S. J. Sill (off-spin) and J. N. J. Anderson (leg-spin), the bowling was expensive and the batting, although strong in depth, lacked consistency. Royal GS, Worcester, benefited from the aggressive strokeplay of openers S. D. Cairney (112 v King's School, Worcester) and P. Bent (115 not out v Christ College, Brecon). Although I. G. Jinks (right-arm fast-medium) was hostile in the right conditions, the attack rarely dominated. Rugby, with no wins over schools, were beaten only by St Edward's Oxford. Rydal had a disappointing record, although keenness and determination often made up for technical deficiencies. The absence through injury of T. P. Forster at the beginning of the season was critical.

St Albans School, with only four drawn games, owed much to the attacking captaincy of all-rounder A. P. Latham. Off-spinner W. J. Dean collected a post-war record of 50 wickets, including returns of seven for 45 v Bedford Modern and six for 41 v Verulam. A high standard of wicket-keeping came from M. D. Lynes and J. C. Simpson, and in the middle order H. S. F. Thompson often steadied the innings under pressure. A strong batting line-up at St Dunstan's was built around No. 3, C. Denny, but C. Tooley failed to fulfil his potential as an opening bat. Fifteen-year-old G. Pointer showed promise as a fast left-arm bowler and S. Cross took 25 wickets with his slow off-cutters. For St Edmund's, Canterbury, who in a season of rebuilding defeated Sir Roger Manwood's School, Duke of York's RHS and Cranbrook, S. A. A. Roche's six for 39 v Dover College was an outstanding performance. Had some of their senior colours, especially the batsmen, produced their true form, St Edward's, Oxford, might have enjoyed a more rewarding term. Except for R. Franklin (left-arm chinaman and googly), the bowling was weak. St George's, Weybridge, found a useful off-break bowler in S. E. Jones, and fifteen-year-old T. J. O'Gorman, with the side's only three-figure innings, promised much for the future.

St John's, Leatherhead, achieved wins v KCS Wimbledon and Christ's Hospital, with captain M. T. Sibley scoring the most runs and taking the most wickets with his off-breaks. Unbeaten by a school, St Peter's, York, were indebted to spinners R. J. Kirby (left-arm) and S. R. Gorman (off-spin), who topped both batting and bowling averages and played for HMC Schools. In a successful season, Sedbergh's young side played positive cricket, being particularly successful at chasing targets and achieving notable wins v Ampleforth and MCC. Captain C. James played fine attacking innings, and M. T. Alban, W. D. C. Carling, J. C. Foster and S. R. Paton gave him good support. The varied attack featured M. G. Burgess (fast), J. C. R. Binks (left-arm fast-medium) and Alban (leg-break).

The strength of Sevenoaks School's side lay in the attack, with R. P. Roberts (right-arm fast-medium) taking the most wickets. The batting was dominated by the consistent J. G. Perks, with D. B. Thresher and left-hander N. P. Thomas in support. A highlight for Sherborne, defeated only by Radley, was an unbroken first-wicket partnership of 205 v Downsides between M. M. C. F. Jones and captain T. J. Dudgeon. P. L. Garlick proved to be a tireless fast bowler and T. J. Billington's accurate, slow left-arm spin reaped its reward. Shrewsbury suffered a frustrating season. They had an inadequate attack, despite the contribution of R. J. P. Burton, who took 56 wickets with his out-swing, including five wickets in an innings on five occasions. Simon Langton GS, who suffered their first defeat in three years, depended heavily on S. C. Goldsmith, who scored three hundreds in his 938 runs, took 27 wickets and played for Kent Second XI. For Sir Roger Manwood's School, M. I. A. Howell (right-arm fast-medium) collected seven for 39 v Dover College. The batting was carried principally by the captain, K. B. G. Boland, and a promising fifteen-year-old, G. W. Laslett.

With a strong bowling side, Solihull recorded five wins, including those v MCC and Barnard Castle, against whom C. M. Jowsey took six for 38 with his off-spinners. M. Whitehead (right-arm fast-medium) took six Bromsgrove wickets for 32 and M. C. Duck (right-arm fast-medium) produced a sensational victory over King's Worcester with three wickets in the final over and match figures of five for 8. The batting, however, was brittle, although J. M. Robinson scored an unbeaten 97 in the victory over King William's College and played for the Rest v Southern Schools. An experienced Stamford School side, with wins v Kimbolton, the XL Club, Spalding GS and Bishop's Stortford College, was centred around captain D. W. Browne, who hit 117 v Clitheroe GS. I. D. Stafford had an excellent season behind the stumps (16ct, 3st) and most wickets fell to fast bowlers I. R. Plant and J. N. Ralphs: the rest of the attack tended to be expensive. A tour of Australia was planned for the winter.

Stockport GS were unbeaten, noteworthy wins coming v Manchester GS and King William's College, against whom the hostile opening bowler, R. A. Samarji, claimed six for 32. Leading batsmen were T. P. R. Reeman, P. H. Wickenden and captain R. P. Nicholson. Strathallan, with twelve wins and only one defeat – at the hands of Barnard Castle School – were given outstanding example by their captain and all-rounder M. J. de G. Allingham, who scored 721 runs at 103.00 and took 45 wickets at 10.55. A superb season for Sutton Valence left the side undefeated with twelve wins, including those v St Lawrence, King's Rochester, Dover College, King's Canterbury, Trinity Croydon, William Hulme's GS and Culford. To the fore were all-rounders A. R. Shaw and M. T. Russell-Vick, a fine captain who made 114 v Dover College, against whom Shaw took six for 13. Russell-Vick played for HMC Schools.

From a young Taunton School side, who defeated Clifton, Canford, Monmouth, Rutlish and a Stowe XI, J. C. Pike and R. J. Bartlett were selected for England Schools Under-15. Tiffin suffered a disappointing season. Owing to a lack of form among the fast bowlers, the burden of the attack fell upon the left-arm orthodox spinners, W. B. Shermer and N. M. Williams. Run-making was prolific at times, with P. R. C. Robinson excelling. Tonbridge, again unbeaten by a school, defeated Charterhouse, Bedford, Haileybury, Clifton, Eastbourne, Wellington, Lancing and Sevenoaks. Four batsmen scored five centuries between them, with G. R. Cowdrey and M. P. Hickson outstanding; both played for HMC Schools. The bowling was equally strong, 114 wickets being shared between four seamers, well supported by wicket-keeper M. Cooper, who collected 27 victims. Trent College owed their excellent season to three fast bowlers: W. Fox (on Leicestershire's books), who took seven for 31 v Pocklington, the promising M. Davison (son of I. M. Davison and on Nottinghamshire's books) and accurate swing bowler N. J. S. Booth. They were ably assisted by some brilliant catching from S. J. Kinselle (on Derby County's books as a goalkeeper), as well as some aggressive outcricket. Seven consecutive wins, four on a Dutch tour, gave Trinity a total of fourteen wins, with only three defeats; the result of a strong team effort. P. J. Stapley equalled the school record of four hundreds in a season. Truro School, with only one defeat, were ably led by T. Manhire, who made a valuable all-round contribution.

With a well-balanced side and depth to their batting, Uppingham, unbeaten, defeated Haileybury, Repton, Shrewsbury, Ampleforth and Oundle. New records were set for Victoria College, Jersey, who defeated Elizabeth College to win the Sullivan Trophy. Captain W. Jenner established a post-war record with 1,227 runs, while pace bowler J. M. W. Giles's 71 wickets were the best return in a term.

Warwick School, after a slow start, defeated King's Worcester, MCC, the XL Club, Dean Close and Solihull. Runs were scored quickly, with two centuries coming from J. C. Ball and one from N. C. B. Robinson. There was a shortage of slow bowlers, the emphasis of the attack being the formidable opening partnership of A. C. Nunn and B. J. Barnfather, well supported by A. Knight. Inconsistent batting restricted Wellingborough School to two wins against schools – v Bedford Modern and Lord Williams's Thame. Wellington College, Crowthorne, found runs hard to come by, but good catching and a penetrative attack brought six victories. Early promise was not fulfilled by Westminster, although the promotion of attacking right-hand batsman R. J. Levy brought a fine late victory v Free Foresters. Weak batting restricted Whitgift, although good wins were achieved v Trinity and St George's Weybridge. The leading bowler was captain R. D. Ronald (slow left-arm), who collected 41 wickets.

William Hulme's GS played positive cricket, with bowlers' performances often winning matches; I. D. Thorpe was the most consistent, A. D. Brown claimed six for 12 in the win v King's Macclesfield, and N. J. Fairfax (leg-spin) and R. G. McLaren (medium) were responsible for the wins v Rydal and Loughborough GS respectively. R. P. Thornton and H. Fryman scored the most runs, but large scores generally eluded the side. Winchester reported a disappointing season, the batting fragile and the bowling often ineffective. However, W. E. J. Holland scored three centuries – 150 not out v Eastbourne, 108 not out v Harrow and 107 v Clifton – and captain and wicket-keeper E. M. Coulman was selected for Southern Schools. After a poor start to the season, Woodbridge School achieved some exciting wins, including those in the final over v RHS Holbrook and Norwich, against whom R. W. Bensly made 100 not out. He scored the most runs as well as taking the most wickets, but the side generally had difficulty in bowling out the opposition, although R. A. Jack emerged as a promising off-spinner and S. Leask's seam bowling proved effective later in the season.

Woodhouse Grove beat Bootham, Ashville and Giggleswick, I. W. Stott emerging as the most successful batsman for ten years and receiving sound support from the Percy brothers. S. A. J. Kippax bowled his leg-spin to good effect and was selected for the Rest v Southern Schools, while B. S. Percy (seam and off-spin) and left-arm opening bowler S. Cockerill enjoyed good returns. E. M. Greenwood was a competent wicket-keeper. Highlights for Worksop College were S. N. Waddington's 132 not out v Denstone and 100 not out by his younger brother, W. M. Waddington, at Repton. Wrekin reported many exciting finishes and good wins v Worksop, Stonyhurst and MCC. Captain J. R. Mackenzie took more than 50 wickets and scored over 500 runs for the second season in succession, while O. N. E. Harvey also made a valuable contribution. A young Wycliffe College side did better than expected, with J. R. Bodington playing a gloriously aggressive innings v Colston's, going from 50 to 70 in one over. R. B. Hair had a promising first season with the ball, and after a poor start captain S. J. Shorthose recovered form to top the bowling averages.
