

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN 1973

By REX ALSTON

The most important event of the season for many of England's best young cricketers was the visit of an Indian Schoolboys team, which played twelve matches in England, Scotland and Wales, including three of three days each against a representative ESCA XI. ESCA won the first two of these at Hove and Bradford and drew the third at Edgbaston. At Hove 'England' won by seven wickets, bowling the Indians out for 72 (off spinner M. E. Allbrook seven for 20) and 230 after making 236 themselves.

England won the second by two wickets off the penultimate ball of the day. V. J. Marks and A. J. Hignell batted well in the first innings and C. J. Tavaré (89) in the second. The third match was a tame draw on a perfect wicket which enabled N. E. Briers (66 and 46), Hignell (117 not out and 78 not out) and Tavaré (124 not out) to demonstrate their batting ability.

In the Regional games, the Indians were more successful, winning three, losing one against the National Association of Young Cricketers and drawing five. Their side contained famous cricketing names like Amarnath, Desai, Imtiaz, Gupte and Banerjee.

The English boys, who played under their County Associations, had some valuable experience, and in addition to those mentioned above P. Tipton (all-rounder), P. G. Woodhead and P. A. Slocombe had good performances. A special commendation for N. E. Briers, an outstanding captain whose field placing and handling of his bowlers was exemplary and who set a fine example on and off the field.

A summary of the tour, with the names of those who played in the representative matches, appears at the end of this section.

The annual match between the Public Schools and ESCA was played at Eastbourne College and a rain-ruined game was drawn. Eight of those who represented ESCA v. The Indians played and Marks, Allbrook and Hignell were in the Public Schools side, captained by T. A. Edmonds (Marlborough). G. Mendis and P. Parker batted well in ESCA's first innings and a brilliant 153 by Marks out of 236 for six ensured a draw. Public Schools made 132 for seven declared and 236 for six; ESCA 193 for two declared.

The National Association of Young Cricketers, who defeated the Indian boys by six wickets, also played a two-day match at Lord's against Combined Services, and after a fairly good show lost by six wickets. They included five of those who toured the West Indies in 1972 and two 1973 Cambridge Blues. Honours were even on the first innings, C. J. Aworth and G. Gooch batting with some authority, but only Gooch made a good impression in the second innings against the spin of W. G. Dover and B. J. Willson.

A browse through the reports of Masters in charge of school cricket—many informative and helpful, some perfunctory, unsigned and presumably delegated to a boy, thus lacking authority—indicates that 1973 produced several unbeaten schools and a number of outstanding cricketers, though the fine summer did not really start till after term ended. Schools like Ampleforth and Sedbergh in the North and Downside and Blundell's in the South complained of slow wickets and rain-spoiled matches. On the other hand some of the Scottish schools like Edinburgh Academy, Glenalmond, George Heriot's, Gordonstoun and Loretto had few weather complaints. Another Scottish school Strathallan noted the declining interest in cricket in Scottish prep. schools, where the coaching is not well done, which makes life difficult for cricketers who have to compete with other sports in a short and often wet season.

There were a number of young, inexperienced sides not helped by the shorter terms made necessary by end of term exams, but this has led to an admirable extension of cricketing opportunities by after-term tours, even overseas, and the spread of festivals in which one school entertains two or three others, each playing all. Eastbourne, Stowe, Merchiston, Lancaster Royal Grammar School and Epsom were some of those who acted as hosts and Southern schools like Downside and Radley ventured as far north as Lancaster and Glenalmond. Belfast Royal Academy, Cranleigh and Llandoverly went to Merchiston, and Berkhamsted, Repton and Trinity Croydon went to Holland.

The hard work of ESCA and NAYC continued to bear fruit, and of those who toured the West Indies in 1972 at least six—I. N. Johnson, G. Miller, G. Gooch, J. R. T. Barclay, P. Booth and A. W. Stovold have established themselves in county sides, whilst others have had an occasional game after good performances in the Second XI. It is good news that a West Indies boys side will be here in 1974.

Schools who were unbeaten included Abingdon, Christ's Hospital and Ellesmere, and the following did not lose an inter-school match: Berkhamsted, Canford, Douai, Edinburgh Academy, Haberdashers' Aske's, Ipswich, Loretto, Millfield, Reed's Cobham, Sedbergh, Sevenoaks and Warwick. Of these Berkhamsted and Sevenoaks were unbeaten for the fourth consecutive year; Ipswich for the third and Canford for the second. Radley, unbeaten during term, lost only to Glenalmond on tour and Ellesmere's batting was so strong that they were never bowled out.

The leading cricketers in Ampleforth's strong side were the left-arm spinner J. P. Pearce and the fast bowler J. J. Hamilton-Dalrymple; the ground fielding was particularly good. For Ardingly, the captain I. F. Cook made 527 runs, the opening batsman A. N. Morrison was a highly promising wicket keeper, and D. N. de Neff bowled fast at times. Bedford's outstanding cricketer, the off-spinner I. G. Peck, took seven for 35 against Bedford Modern School and scored over 400 runs, including one century. The interesting feature of Bishop Stortford's young side was the inclusion of four spin bowlers. Fifteen-year old G. N. Tee bowled slow left arm and was an opening bat.

Blundell's were a hard side to beat in a wet season, rain ruining six matches; their captain Marks excelled for the Public Schools v. ESCA and the bowling was varied. Bradfield had an outstanding pair of opening bowlers, D. P. Manners and R. E. T. Jennings, who totalled 85 wickets between them. Manners took nine for 29 against Westminster, seven for 29 against Wellington and against Stowe, and Jennings nine for 26 against the Waifs. Bradford Grammar School lost only one school game—by only six runs against Lancaster RGS. Their strong bowling side was headed by P. G. Woodhead, who took 99 wickets at a lively pace. After a poor start, Brentwood enjoyed a highly successful season; M. H. G. Dorey was one of the fastest bowlers in school cricket and he was supported by two leg spinners, N. D. Watson and M. A. Stacey.

For Cheltenham M. E. Hawton scored an exciting 125 in an hour, including six sixes, against the Gloucestershire Gypsies and Marlborough were beaten for the first time for 30 years. Dauntsey's good season was based on the fast medium in-swingers of K. Shortland whose 38 wickets broke the school record. Denstone's captain, A. J. Hignell, was one of the best batsmen in school cricket. In four seasons he has scored 2537 runs; and he played with distinction in the representative matches. The bowling relied too much on the leg breaks of D. J. A. Hill and the off breaks of J. P. M. Martin. Dover had a young inexperienced team but W. R. L. Couves, left-arm medium, took nine for 21 against St. Lawrence, Ramsgate. Downside developed into a reasonable side who won the Harold Douthwaite Memorial Trophy at Lancaster. Their outstanding cricketer was the captain J. P. Bramall, who scored 559 runs and took 23 wickets with off spin.

Emanuel School has in R. H. Guy, batsman and off spinner, a promising all rounder. Felsted played attacking cricket, led by the prolific scoring of the captain, J. J. Rees and G. J. May. Glenalmond had their most successful season for thirteen years, losing only to Loretto by two wickets. M. J. Heap was a fine wicket-keeper who has taken 50 wickets in two years, D. J. G. Mackintosh did the hat trick against Merchiston and A. K. Robson, fast medium, took eight for 39 against undefeated Radley on tour. The new cricket school is producing results.

Gordonstoun did well, due chiefly to the aggressive right-hand batting and fast medium left arm bowling of A. J. Payne, an exchange pupil from Australia, and for Gresham's M. N. A. Boal made 501 runs and the slow left hander R. J. St. C. Pringle took 36 wickets.

Harrow had a powerful batting side; M. W. Hall made hundreds against Malvern and Charterhouse, and C. D. Gilliat took 45 wickets with leg spinners. Highgate's bowling was based on the spin attack of D. B. Wainwright, slow left hand and G. L. Wingrove, leg spin, and C. M. B. Williams was an outstanding captain. Hurstpierpoint possessed a strong batting side led by the captain, G. P. Ford. The opening bowler S. Harris took six for 38 against St. John's Leatherhead, and seven for 38 against Dover. A. Stewart, with leg spin, took the most wickets (32).

For King Edward's Birmingham, the fast bowler G. W. Taylor took eight for 24 against Bishop Vesey's and S. G. Rich a total of 26 wickets with very slow leg spin. King William College, Isle of Man, had an enjoyable season. The strength lay in bowling and fielding, particularly the genuine speed of the captain, A. M. Lees. C. Nevison and M. S. Doki held 17 catches in the slips. King's School, Canterbury, lost only one school match. They had two good all-rounders, N. Asfaw and S. J. White-Thomson. Asfaw took seven for 9 against the Buccaneers, whilst D. I. Gower, No. 1 batsman, took six for 8 including a hat trick with slow medium 'floaters' against K.C.S. Wimbledon.

King's School Rochester had one of their best seasons for many years, losing only one match out of 16. N. A. Jones was an outstanding batsman. For Lancing, a very young side, the captain A. P. Larcombe had a superb season, scoring most runs (466) taking most wickets (36) and holding most catches. Leeds Grammar School also possessed an outstanding all-rounder, their captain J. Wood—668 runs and 56 wickets with off-spinners. Llandoverly, another very young side, lost only one match in a highly successful season. D. J. Samuel and N. J. Duncan formed a hostile opening attack. Duncan took four or more wickets on seven occasions and Samuel on six.

Loretto's season revolved round the ability of D. J. M. Hutchinson, 52 wickets and 606 runs. Malvern enjoyed an excellent season; they had depth in batting with three centuries, the captain J. A. C. Denham bowled leg breaks (18 wickets) and J. J. Bamber, slow left arm, took 31 wickets. Marlborough showed only three wins, but these included a ten-wicket victory over Rugby. R. le Q. Savage took eight for 39 and finished with 53 wickets. Edmonds was an excellent bat and captain. For Merchiston, Drummond was an attacking batsman and J. H. Swann a useful off-spinner. The Festival against Belfast, Cranleigh and Llandoverly was a great success.

P. J. Dean set up a post war record of 923 runs in four seasons for Mill Hill. The slow bowlers S. C. Roberst, left arm, and N. S. J. Wilkinson, off-spin, took most wickets. Monmouth lost only once in a successful season. D. M. Harbord was an enthusiastic captain and K. T. Norkett was genuinely fast. So also was P. A. R. Hockey, who was the leader of Monkton Combe's attacking cricket. Nottingham High School had one of the most prolific cricketers of the summer, R. E. Dexter (796 runs) bringing his total to 2460 in four seasons. They had an enjoyable tour of Millfield, Taunton and Cheltenham. Pocklington had a promising side, with A. H. Woodhead an outstanding captain and all rounder (500 runs and 26 wickets).

Despite 13 draws Radley experienced a good season, being unbeaten in term time and winding up with success at Lancaster. M. Glover scored 955 runs, the most for 50 years, including three centuries, and he also contributed 29 wickets with off-spinners and supported the slow left arm of P. R. J. Anderson (45 wickets). R. W. B. Gwyn (43 wickets) was genuinely fast.

In Repton's good side J. M. Ross scored two centuries in three days and finished with a season's total of 720 whilst the medium pace of A. R. Kay brought him 53 wickets. Another powerful batsman was J. L. Rounsell, 635 runs for Rydal, who were a strong bowling side headed by M. Weekes. St Edmund's, Canterbury lost only once to a school, but had too many draws and suggest that there might be a demand on good wickets for school matches to be played under John Player League rules. Heaven forbid! M. H. Hamilton (344 runs and 33 wickets), fast left arm, took 6 for 9 against Dover.

St. Lawrence, Ramsgate were a goodish side, strong in batting, with L. de B. C. Hart bowling away swingers and batting aggressively at No. 3. St Edward's Oxford played positive cricket, many draws being moral victories. Congratulations on averaging 22 overs per hour! Sherborne were reasonably successful. H. R. L. Leaman made 71 in an hour to beat Clifton; J. R. Garforth-Bles was a good all-rounder.

Shrewsbury's captain, R. C. Boys-Stones, took 50 wickets in a rapidly improving side which excelled in the field and in running between wickets. Solihull had an effective fast bowler in Le Resche; R. L. Hill bowled slow left arm, D. R. Ellis bowled off spin and P. R. Vickers made 746 runs. Sutton Valence relied on the runmaking of P. R. Latham (622 runs) and the spin bowling of D. C. F. High (33 wickets with off spinners) and E. A. H. James (29 with leg breaks). Stockport Grammar School showed more positive play than in 1972 and were not beaten. Their outstanding all-rounder P. Tipton played for ESCA and they attributed the improvement in their cricket to the employment of a first rate groundsman.

Tonbridge were a strong bowling side led by M. E. Allbrook, off spin (35 wickets), C. R. Davies, slow left arm (43 wickets) and J. P. Campbell (36 wickets, fast). C. S. Cowdrey made 150 not out against Clifton, including 100 before lunch. Trinity School, Croydon had an excellent season in which S. A. Dreyer made 632 runs, whilst G. E. Marsden and D. C. Breden, seam bowlers, shared 110 wickets. Trent College lost only one of their eleven matches and introduced another West Indian all-rounder, S. Julien. Truro also lost one out of twelve and had an outstanding bowler in M. D. Buzza (43 wickets).

Uppingham won only one of their twelve games. They were unlucky with injuries, but had two fine cricketers in D. A. Stewart (575 runs) and M. F. Lumsden (all-rounder). Winchester were an ordinary side, winning only once, but D. A. J. Baldry scored 678 runs and their juniors won the Esso Colts competition. For Whitgift, K. C. Powell set up a post war batting record of 619 runs and they had two good spinners in D. D. Kerslake (off-spin) and A. P. C. Goddard (leg-spin). The leading cricketers in a young Wellington side were M. P. Stearms (578 runs) and the captain P. C. Fladgate (32 wickets, off-spin).

Westminster's inexperienced side improved; their leading all-rounder A. P. Macwhinnie made 1000 runs in his four years in the eleven and took 65 wickets. Worksop possessed a splendid all-rounder in G. D. Shuttleworth (417 runs and 31 wickets, slow left arm). Features of the Wrekin season were the wicket-keeping skill of P. J. Harrison (25 victims), the fielding of the captain T. C. Fern who made 15 catches at short leg, and the slow left arm bowling of Smallwood (43 wickets). Wycliffe enjoyed one of their best post-war seasons based on aggressive batting and a positive spirit. M. Rose was a good fast left arm bowler. Wyggeston School, who possessed a useful off-spinner in C. Morton (31 wickets), had several exciting finishes decided in the final over.

From the above account, there were obviously some good cricketers in 1973. 19 batsmen made 600 runs or more and 14 bowlers took over 50 wickets. There were plenty of spinners about—off and slow left arm, whilst leg spinners—though frowned on in first-class cricket—proliferate among the schools, so there is hope for the future. At least six boys were described as genuinely fast, and there were some excellent wicket-keepers.
