

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN 1977

By REX ALSTON

Pressure on space is so intense that the Editor has regretfully had to limit the number of pages devoted to the Public Schools, so some whose masters have sent details of their season will find they have had to be left out. This is unfortunate, but unavoidable.

The overall impression gained from perusing some 130 reports was a cri de coeur about the abominable weather, especially in the first half of the season, e.g. Monmouth had five games washed out and Blundell's were especially hard hit. But cricket would appear to be in good heart, and there were excellent performances, both individual and team. The most prolific run-getters were M. R. Benson (Sutton Valence) 1,022, R. J. Boyd-Moss (Bedford) 851 and D. R. Pringle (Felsted) 830. The leading wicket-takers were N. K. James (Nottingham High School) 64, G. W. Tait (St. Peter's, York) 63 and F. P. O'Connor (Ampleforth) 61. These figures must be judged against the class of opposition encountered and the number of matches played.

The following comments vary with the amount of information supplied. Unbeaten records in schools games were achieved in their respective spheres by the following: Bradfield—for a second year—but their only win was against Eton. R. J. Patteson-Knight made 509 runs, T. D. Blake was a stylish wicket-keeper and R. T. Helm an experienced off-spinner (36 wickets). Brighton had an outstanding wicket-keeper, S. M. Harrison. G. D. Bailey and M. J. Gaston were a good opening pair and R. J. Piper a mature captain. The school's Second XI were unbeaten for the 6th time in seven years. For the third consecutive season, Felsted won all their games, beating Clifton, Tonbridge, Winchester and Eastbourne in the Eastbourne Festival. Pringle, the captain, made four centuries and finished his four seasons with 2,154 runs and 164 wickets. He won the Len Newbery trophy. Glenalmond—for the second successive season, but inexperienced bowling caused eight draws. The three leading batsmen were D. Everett, captain and wicket-keeper, S. K. Macaulay and C. L. R. Batten.

Haberdashers' Aske's lost only to the M.C.C. They had batting depth and good opening bowlers in G. H. Smith and J. S. Gibb, and the captain, P. D. Lidington, set a fine example with bat and in the field. Kimbolton scored at 20.58 per wicket and the opposition only 15.41. R. A. J. Lomas was a good all-rounder. Merchant Taylors', Northwood had a fine batting side. The captain, R. Marsden, made three not out centuries and five other fifties. He and G. J. Warren had one opening partnership of 200 and two of 100, and they gained overwhelming wins against St. Paul's and St. John's, Leatherhead. Millfield had an enjoyable season under the inspiring captaincy of V. P. Terry, who signed a one-year contract for Hampshire. Milton Abbey excelled in the field and were well led by their wicket-keeper, J. A. Stewart. Mount St. Mary's have lost only once in the last three seasons. P. C. J. Ayres, fast bowler and number three bat, played for Middlesex II. Nottingham High School with their extensive fixture list won 11 of their 20 games.

Oundle won only twice. D. C. Holliday and J. P. C. Mills had a 200 partnership against Rugby and Mills also hit a century against Stowe. Both played for Northamptonshire II. Repton won two, tied one and had the better of three draws. Sherborne had their best side for several years, winning six and drawing two against schools. The captain, P. W. S. Madley, kept wicket for the Welsh Schools, T. D. W. Edwards batted successfully for the Schools at Lord's, and J. G. B. Fisk took 21 wickets in the three Festival games. Shrewsbury's captain, R. J. Lloyd, was a useful all-rounder and the bowling was headed by G. F. Boys-Stones (leg-spin), R. W. Evans (seam) and A. T. Gittins. Sutton Valence's side was full of all-rounders. Benson's 1,022 runs was a school record. He scored three centuries, and over 50 eleven times. Wellington had a successful and enjoyable season, losing only to M.C.C., and had the better of several draws. The captain, R. I. H. B. Dyer, set a record of 2,287 runs in four seasons and captained the representative Schools side at Lord's.

Though not unbeaten, the following had satisfactory seasons: Bishop's Stortford after two early losses won five and drew five of their last ten games. A. Bental set a school record of 637 runs and J. P. Ireland (fast-medium) did the hat-trick against Forest. Brentwood were full of all-rounders. They won eight and drew three of their last eleven games. Cheltenham Grammar School lost only once against a school. L. Nicholls, the captain, was a good all-rounder. Douai had a very good season. J. Forsyth took 51 wickets and K. Tomlinson made a splendid 109 against the Old Boys. Sound batting was the feature of Ellesmere's good side. The bowling of I. Owen and R. F. Smail showed class, and there was variety of spin. They tied with Rydal, had an exciting draw with Shrewsbury and in their win against William Hulme School, I. A. Clarke (medium) took the last three wickets in four balls.

Eton's strength lay in the mature batting of J. L. Rawlinson, who made 50 or over against all schools, and R. H. M. Raison, captain for the second year, whose 73 not out helped to defeat Harrow. N. Y. J. Kirkpatrick did the hat-trick against Marlborough. Gresham's, led by the all-rounder R. A. Leman, suffered only one defeat and were never bowled out. Bad weather caused many draws. Hampton had a good season in which the captain, S. J. D. Green, always risked defeat with generous declarations. T. S. Bishop made seven fifties and P. D. Samways (fast) took 50 wickets. Highlights of Hurstpierpoint's enjoyable season were the dismissal of Eastbourne for 29 and the early season bowling of D. L. Carnegie—eight for 15 against Cranbrook, and seven for 7 against Caterham.

King Henry VIII, Coventry were generally successful due to the captaincy of J. D. Freeman and the bowling of P. A. Swards, T. J. Buttimore and I. Peters. King's School, Bruton were a talented bowling and fielding side. M. R. Doggrell and A. D. Jenkins were accurate and consistent, and the captain, J. P. Dobbs, set a fine fielding example. Malvern lost only one school match but were less successful against clubs. Most members made a major contribution at least once in a good team effort. Marlborough had a successful and exciting season, highlighted by a win against Radley by one run. In a team effort, J. A. Rawle was a good captain and O. T. Gravell (left-arm fast) was the best bowler. Monmouth were unbeaten by clubs but lost two matches to schools. Good cricket was played, exemplified by P. D. Parker's 115 not out against M.C.C.

Pocklington won eight out of eleven matches against schools. J. D. Guillen made a record run aggregate of 680, P. G. Halliday was a good wicket-keeper captain and the running between wickets was outstanding. Queen Elizabeth, Wakefield, though they lost to Stonyhurst by three wickets, were better than the 1976 unbeaten side.

Varied bowling included J. M. Hawarth and N. L. Chapman (both left-arm fast-medium) and the leg-spinner, D. A. Young. Queen's, Taunton won six of their last eight matches. N. J. Watson made a century against Collyer's, D. J. Petheram took seven for 14 against Bishop Vesey's, and H. A. Suter kept wicket for Somerset II. Rydal tied with Ellesmere and were defeated off the last ball by M.C.C. They had several draws in their favour. M. R. Christie was an all-rounder and J. P. England, the captain, was the best bat.

St. Albans suffered only one loss—by one wicket to Merchant Taylors' in April. The fast bowler N. Beardow took 43 wickets and O. Rodgers was a good captain. St. Dunstan's likewise only lost once to a school. St. Edward's, Oxford won four and had two moral victories. In a good bowling side, J. M. J. Ford (fast-medium inswing) took seven for 22 against Bedford, supported by N. R. Chaumeton (outswing), H. T. Rogers (slow left) and A. I. F. Miscampbell (off-spin). St. John's, Leatherhead, after a rain-spoilt start, were fairly successful. They beat Eastbourne for the third successive year. R. J. Golder (medium) took his 100th wicket for the school, and the captain, M. A. Arthur, played for the Southern Schools against The Rest. St. Lawrence, Ramsgate were unbeaten until the last match. The fast bowling of N. G. Marchant and the swing of the captain, C. J. Haigh, were major factors and the out-cricket was outstanding. Sedbergh lost only to Ampleforth. Bowling was their strong point—no boy made 50 against S. A. B. Daniels (fast), C. J. Brockbank (medium) and M. H. Wilson (slow left-arm). The batsmen developed a flair for run-chasing.

Taunton's successful side lost only to Millfield. The opening bowlers A. J. Tulloch (who took 101 wickets in his school career) and S. Pearson shared 73 wickets. In Trent's good season only two matches were lost out of 17. The captain, L. St. J. Taylor, made 203 not out against Ratcliffe and C. S. Fountaine (fast-medium) took 44 wickets. Their record on a North Eastern tour was won three, drew two. Victoria College, Jersey lost only one school match. Records were set by T. P. M. Forster—800 runs—and C. J. C. Searson's 46 wickets included eight for 18 against Hardye's. Warwick's young side also lost only one school match. G. J. Lords (slow left) and left-hand bat played later for Warwickshire II. J. D. Pool (left-arm fast-medium) was the leading bowler.

Winchester's strong features were fielding and bowling. S. D. K. Edwards took five wickets three times, including nine for 22 against Wellington, and R. P. Wordie twice took seven wickets. M. C. L. Macpherson and P. C. Teuten both made hundreds. Worksop developed well, beating Denstone and tying with Repton. P. A. Shuttleworth was a good captain and opening bat, and W. G. and J. L. G. Smith were useful spinners. Wrekin were a better side than results indicated. They won four and lost four against schools and four others were rained off. Their strength lay in three useful all-rounders: J. B. R. Jones, R. S. Dutton and M. K. Perry. Wycliffe lost only one school match. The bowling was led by two spinners—D. G. Wheeler (left-arm) and M. D. Mason-Williams (off).

In addition to those already noted, the following put up good performances: J. W. Slingsby made 547 runs for Abingdon and played for Warwickshire II, and their spinner P. A. Evans took 42 wickets. All Hallows had two successful bowlers in R. D. Higgs, who took nine for 12 against Exeter, and H. J. van Weelde, whose nine for 16 against the Free Foresters included the hat-trick. R. M. H. Cottam in his first season as professional sharpened the side. J. E. Willis was an outstanding captain and slip field at Ampleforth and F. P. O'Connor (gentle inswing) took five wickets in a match six times and played for H.M.C. Schools against ESCA. N. S. Brown, an all-rounder and M. G. Robins, a batsman, did well for Blundell's where the bowling disappointed. Their long running festival with Ampleforth, Oundle and Uppingham was a great success.

Bootham's possessed a good all-rounder in A. R. Rattray—536 runs and 34 wickets (off-spin). At Bradford Grammar School P. A. Kellett was an all-rounder of high potential and P. J. Skelton their best wicket-keeper for years. Charterhouse disappointed despite the batting of their opening pair N. H. L. Sellars and P. W. A. Westerman. F. M. Dudhia and M. N. Lovill bowled their overs too slowly so there were too many draws, but the fielding was good. Christ's Hospital had an outstanding fast-medium bowler in Q. P. V. Brown (53 wickets). Downside, though hit by the weather, beat Blundell's, Clifton and Radley, due chiefly to the batting of S. Halliday, who was only twice out for single figures, and the seam bowling of T. Page, R. P. S. Miller and M. W. Stevens.

A. J. S. Carrie had a fine season for Edinburgh Academy, making over 30 in 11 out of 14 innings. Elizabeth College, Guernsey possessed an outstanding batsman wicket-keeper in I. R. Damarell. M. W. Eastwood scored the first century for twelve years for Fettes, whose often brilliant fielding supported the swing bowling of R. S. Allison and D. T. Brydon. For Giggleswick, the wicket-keeper M. J. Dixon claimed 19 victims and batted well, and G. Brackenbury (fast-medium) and M. N. Thurnott (off-spin) shared 66 wickets.

M. Horsthuis was a good all-rounder for King William's, Isle of Man, who lost only one of nine school games. King's, Canterbury lacked a class batsman, but their fast bowlers A. M. N. Rahman and G. D. P. Breeze were a useful opening pair, Rahman taking four wickets in four balls against the Old Boys. For Lancing, S. J. P. Johnstone played the highest innings since the War—141 against M.C.C. The side played much good cricket, but the main batsmen never came off together and each of six bowlers had his day. Leys experienced mixed fortunes. M. A. Staniforth was a good captain and batsman, but not enough runs were scored in support of R. M. H. Stennett (fast-medium) and the off-spinner N. A. McL. Oughtred, who took eight for 35 against Bedford. M. A. Graves was a successful wicket-keeper batsman for Oakham, but the side lacked penetrative bowling. Another outstanding wicket-keeper batsman was M. L. Sagers of Perse who was chosen for the Southern Schools against The Rest. The side lost four out of their first six games but were unbeaten in the last eight.

Radley had a good bowling and fielding side but the batting disappointed, though the all-rounder C. R. Pritchard made 605 runs and took 40 wickets. A. N. Gordon was a successful all-rounder for Reading. He played four big not-out innings—106, 106, 89 and 70, and twice took five wickets in an innings. They had a splendid win over M.C.C., making 233 for three in reply to 232 for seven declared.

Young England

Honours were even in the first matches between the England and Australian Young Cricketers, each side winning one 55-over game. The Australians, in their twelve-match tour, won ten and lost only to England. The tour was organised by the Britain-Australia Society in commemoration of the Queen's Jubilee, and was a big success.

The first match at Arundel was reduced to 45 overs each after a wet morning, and resulted in a win for England by 32 runs. K. Sharp, a left-hander from Yorkshire, made a splendid 107, showing maturity and technical skill of a high order, and later in the season played several matches in the County Championship. P. Bainbridge (66) was another batsman who excelled and he later played with success for Gloucestershire. The Australians, inexperienced in limited-over cricket, made a good reply. A. Handrickan and R. Allen both showed good form and the later batsmen sacrificed wickets in a forlorn run-chase. On the slow pitch, England's faster bowlers shared the seven wickets which fell.

Two days later at Lord's, in better weather conditions, the Australians had ample revenge in winning by 40 runs. A splendid 100 by G. Marsh and good support from the captain, B. Green (50) and Allen (33), who confirmed his Arundel promise, enabled the Australians to make 249 for eight in their 55 overs, and again the faster bowlers, A. C. S. Pigott and P. A. Hector, were the most successful. England made a bright start, but when Sharp, who scored 40 out of 60, was out, to be followed by Bainbridge, they never looked like winning against good fast bowling by G. Thomson and the left-arm wrist spin of M. Dolman, and were all out for 209. In addition to Sharp and Bainbridge, others to play first-class cricket later were D. N. Patel (Worcestershire), M. Olive (Somerset), I. R. Payne (Surrey), C. J. Richards (Surrey) and P. A. Hector (Essex).

ESCA Report

The pool of players available at this level was not as strong as in previous seasons, so the selectors ventured to develop those Under-16 players who showed more class, if less physical maturity. By and large it was from among this age-group that the better performances came. Six matches were played and none were won. Significantly not one of the ESCA side was chosen for the England Young Cricketers side which played Combined Services at Lord's.

In the initial match with a Millfield Invitation XI, M. Bamber (Surrey) made 105 not out, and later N. Felton (Kent) made 65 not out against Wales, and A. Arundell (Yorkshire) took four wickets for 13. Bamber and Felton have both won scholarships at Millfield where they will make a formidable opening partnership both for the School and for ESCA. The only other 50's scored were by N. Russom (Avon) against HMC Schools, M. Brearley (Yorkshire) and P. Terry (Somerset) against the Canadian Colts, H. Ellison (Avon) against Millfield and the Scottish Colts, and M. Carter (Sussex) against the Australian Young Cricketers. This latter match at Winchester was played according to Benson & Hedges rules, and the Australians approached the game with more maturity than the English boys. Their batsmen scored freely against the faster English bowlers, but found R. Heritage (Yorkshire) a much more experienced bowler. His twelve overs of slow left-arm cost only 20 runs.

Against the Australian total of 231 for five, the ESCA batsmen played with surprising naivety, and a series of desperate shots left the tail-enders with no more than batting practice. Carter did well to score 53 and Arundell 33. ESCA reached 184 for nine in their 55 overs. This form of cricket did not by any means receive universal approval as a basis for Schools Representative matches.

A Schools team from Trinidad & Tobago had a successful 17 match tour of Southern England in July and August, organised by Price's College, Fareham and Hampshire C.C.C. They won five, drew eight, three were abandoned; they lost only once, to Essex Schools after a generous declaration.
