

SCHOOLS CRICKET IN 1978

By REX ALSTON

The Representative games at Eastbourne and Lord's unearthed some promising cricketers, and the all-round standard was higher than in 1977. At Lord's the two-day game between teams selected from those who had played at Eastbourne, entitled MCC Schools v National Association of Young Cricketers, was drawn. Impressive batting by R. J. Boyd-Moss (Bedford) and N. A. Felton (Millfield) enabled the Schools to declare at 171 for two, to which NAYC replied with 132 for seven declared, opening bowlers J. P. Agnew (Uppingham) and R. Ellison (Tonbridge) sharing five wickets. The Schools' second innings was a laborious plod, only 120 coming in 57 overs, and a failure to declare left NAYC, manifestly the weaker side, an impossible task. They made 119 for four.

A team selected from the above played a 55-over match versus a Combined Services team, and after a good day won by 33 runs. 471 runs were scored and eighteen wickets fell. Felton (82) again excelled himself, showing maturity and skill, and he was supported by R. I. H. B. Dyer (Wellington) (49), last year's captain and an experienced batsman, C. Cook (34), an exciting stroke-maker, H. G. Ellison, the captain (Bristol GS) (34) and Boyd-Moss (29). The Services accepted the challenge to make 253, and at one stage looked like winning, making short shrift of the faster bowlers Agnew, R. Ellison and S. J. Dennis (Scarborough), but the fifth bowler tried, slow left-arm I. Maciver (Mill Hill), quickly ran through the dangerous hitters, finishing with seven for 48, and at the end the Services were 219 for nine.

ESCA Report

The all-round level of technique and performance of the English Schools in the 1978 season was much more encouraging than that of 1977. The senior members of the Schools Indian Tour, V. P. Terry, R. H. I. B. Dyer, D. Pringle, and N. Taylor joined Hampshire, Warwickshire, Essex and Kent respectively for the summer. M. Brearley (Yorkshire) and G. Parsons (Berkshire) played for the England Young Cricketers in the three Tests against the visiting West Indies Young Cricketers. It is becoming increasingly difficult for the strongest English Schools XI to take the field together, as demands from Second XI, Minor County, Representative and even First-Class cricket are considerable.

The ESCA v HMC Schools drawn game at Eastbourne was notable for good swing bowling by R. Ellison (Kent), and good batting by N. Felton (Kent), C. Worlidge (Marlborough) and R. Boyd-Moss (Bedford).

English Schools cricket was tested against the West Indies tourists at Charterhouse. After dismissing the visitors for 186 on a good wicket, (G. Parsons five for 35), the Schools were in trouble at 130 for six, (R. Boyd-Moss 55), but a fine partnership of 120 by K. Barnett (Staffordshire) (75) and A. Arundell (Yorkshire) (72) enabled the English Schools to reach 284. In their second innings the West Indies made 326, and an honourable draw was the result. The opening partnership of Boyd-Moss and Felton was a feature of the batting, as was the all-round ability of Ellison and Arundell with swing and seam, and Barnett with leg-spin; though the main strength of the bowling lay with the quicker bowlers, Parsons, Dennis, Ellison and Agnew. Parsons and Agnew both later played for Leicestershire. The promise of slow left-arm I. Maciver was also noted, though there was a dearth of spin bowlers of real potential.

In a season of cool, sunless and wet weather, the Schools made light of the conditions, and there were few complaints, though naturally slow pitches hindered high scoring, some games were ruined or abandoned, and spinners enjoyed themselves more than their faster brethren.

The following were unbeaten in all matches, though there were in most cases several draws, due often to the weather: Radley had a unique season, undefeated in twenty games, though they only won six. They had possibly the best eleven for twenty-five years. Eight batsmen each made 50 in a good team effort. Spinners T. P. Wise (off-spin) and C. J. Sutton (slow left-arm) were the leading bowlers and they were well supported in the field. Repton similarly had only five wins. J. M. G. Richardson was the leading batsman, supported by the captain, W. J. Wesson, and D. G. Winfield. The first seven batsmen made at least one 50. The bowling was no more than steady, with Richardson taking the most wickets. Bancrofts were never bowled out. M. S. Webber set a School record of 557 runs and 30 wickets with leg-spin. N. F. Wilkinson (slow left-arm) took five wickets four times and the opening batsmen, S. B. Ince and C. R. Thomas, put on 120 against the Incogs.

City of London had their best eleven for many years. They too were never bowled out. S. N. Siddiqui batted well and the best bowlers were the captain, N. D. Towson (fast-medium), and G. P. Arnett (off-spin). Downside were unbeaten for the second time in three years, but they had twelve draws out of fourteen matches, including all nine against Schools, though eight of these went to the last over. They were a very young side who fielded well. The leading players were the captain, N. J. McKibbin, T. A. Cotterell (slow left-arm), M. J. Greaves (off-spin), and R. T. Vyvyan was the leading batsman. St Edmund's, Canterbury had an exciting time, playing two draws with the scores level and one tie. Fifteen-year-old S. A. Sloan was the most consistent batsman and I. C. Hooper (slow left-arm) was the most effective bowler.

Tonbridge comment that poor catching as well as slow pitches produced eleven draws. The batting was particularly strong, headed by J. C. Spurling and R. M. Ellison who scored 1,500 runs between them, including partnerships of 213 against Dulwich and 167 against Winchester. Ellison (fast-medium) and S. C. Miller (slow left-arm) were the leading bowlers and Ellison and Spurling both won representative honours at Eastbourne and Lord's. Forest played eight draws which argued strong batting and moderate bowling. The best wins were against Bishop's Stortford and the Forty Club, when they were chasing totals of over 200. The leading batsmen were captain R. Andrews, C. Shokaya, and N. Bruce.

The following were unbeaten by Schools: Merchant Taylors', Northwood had their second successful year, despite deplorable weather causing many draws. N. G. Smith and G. B. Leno made hard-hitting centuries and topped both averages. They and T. O. R. Rimmington, all medium-quick bowlers, were very accurate. The captain, N. J. C. Pollock, set a high fielding standard, and B. P. Ladd kept wicket well. At St Albans the captain, D. W. Rodgers, reached an aggregate of 1,000 runs for the school, and S. P. J. Dymoke set a post-war record aggregate. They were formidable openers. The chief bowlers were M. J. H. Beardow and C. A. Blythe. St Peter's, York had bowling depth, brilliant fielding, adequate batting and all-round team ability. J. H. Baggs with the new ball and M. W. Johnston (slow left-arm) were promising bowlers. The captain, R. Collingwood-Gittings, led the side well and played some fine innings, and his opening partner, J. P. Ross, was remarkably consistent, only failing to reach double figures once in twenty innings.

Felsted: this was the fourth year in succession that they were unbeaten by any School, but their six wins were achieved with less authority. They won against Aldenham, The Leys, Highgate, Winchester, St Peter's and Haileybury. N. T. Gadsby (three centuries) and M. A. Rigby (one century) had their second season together as openers. M. J. R. French, a talented all-rounder, bowled fast-medium, and all six bowlers contributed, but with less penetration than in previous years. Haberdashers' Aske's, Elstree were unbeaten for the second successive year. Solid batting was led by the left-handed M. J. Bailey, T. H. Parker and R. Price. The bowling was not strong, relying mostly on the pace of the Weston twins, M. S. and S. Trinity had nine wins and five draws and a tie against Whitgift. Opening batsmen R. K. Steadman and J. T. Woodman made 1,200 runs between them. Leading bowler P. E. Smith (fast) twice took seven wickets in an innings, and he was supported by J. C. T. Martin (off-spin) and I. J. Roberts, all-rounder and knowledgeable captain. Schools beaten were Ipswich, Emanuel, Reeds, Caterham, St Benedict's Ealing, and Tiffin.

The following Schools, though beaten, enjoyed a successful and in many cases happy season: Charterhouse report an exciting season in which M. C. Frankland was the batting mainstay. They had three accurate seam bowlers, G. D. T. Pride, M. N. Lovell and R. C. Doggart, supported by slow left-arm P. D. Griffiths. They were an outstanding fielding side. Mill Hill's success revolved around the slow left-arm of their captain, I. Maciver, who took 58 wickets and bowled well in the Representative matches. The batting improved steadily and eighty-one catches were held, fifteen more than the School record. Dover had their best side for some years. It had batting depth, led by P. Veivers, an Australian on an exchange visit. The best bowler was E. Le Blanc, who bowled fast, accurately and to a good length. W. J. Medlicott was an able captain and the fielding reached a high standard. Bablake, Coventry were only bowled out once – by King's, Worcester. The fielding and catching were good and the leading batsmen were M. I. M. Eames, a left-hander, and the captain, K. A. R. Appleton.

Haileybury reckon their team was the most successful for years, winning nine and losing only two. R. G. P. Ellis was an outstanding all-rounder and captain who excelled in making 108 against Harrow, who were defeated for the first time in eighteen years. St Dunstan's were bowled out only once thanks to strong batting led by C. T. Carpenter, opening batsman, who made two centuries, and the captain, R. P. Browne, who also bowled his leg-spin tidily. Four Schools were beaten. Pocklington enjoyed their best season ever in results – twelve wins against Schools due largely to aggressive batting by J. D. Guillen (967 runs) and A. G. Brumfield (719 runs), an exceptional captain who inspired excellent fielding. Ashville, Harrogate lost only to Pocklington in a tight finish by two wickets. Six centuries were made, three each to the left-handed captain, K. M. Walsh, and S. J. Simpson, the wicket-keeper, who had a Trial at Eastbourne. S. J. Hobson was the best bowler and the team had three good wins on a Midland tour against Trent, Kimbolton and Wellingborough.

Bedford had a fine season. They possessed a well-balanced side who played positive cricket and the fielding and catching were first-class. The only Schools losses were against Oundle and Uppingham. R. J. Boyd-Moss was a class batsman and a shrewd captain who did well in Representative matches. R. W. M. Palmer (fast left-arm) took a record number of wickets and he was supported by R. J. Wildish (fast) and J. V. S. Sahai (off-spin). Cheltenham Grammar School were never bowled out and had a nine wicket win over Cheltenham Town. C. Minett, the captain, topped both averages, took most catches and captained Gloucestershire Schools. Christ, Brecon had the best side for years. Good batting by the captain, P. L. Thomas, and by A. L. G. Jones, was complemented by the opening bowlers, J. Scurlock-Davies, and S. A. Spencer, and P. G. Chambers (slow left-arm). The record was as a result of a good team effort, especially in the field, where H. R. Thomas kept wicket well. Cricket is in a healthy state in the school. Christ's Hospital played exciting, positive cricket, beating Ardingly, St John's Leatherhead and Epsom; losing to Cranleigh and tying with King's Taunton.

Douai enjoyed their most successful season since 1971, losing only to MCC. The captain, J. Forsyth (fast) took over 50 wickets for the second season running, and was the first Douai boy to represent the Southern Schools against The Rest. King Henry VIII, Coventry performed well in all departments. They were well led by batsman D. J. Freeman and the leading bowlers were T. J. Buttimore (fast), an all-rounder, and P. A. Sowards. King's, Macclesfield had their best season for many years, beating five Schools and losing only to Stockport Grammar School. No-one was outstanding, but five of the team scored 300 runs and over, and three bowlers took over 25 wickets. J. J. Cope (leg-spin) has taken 104 wickets in the last three years. Lancing had almost their best ever team, full of attractive batsmen and talented bowlers, the only weakness being in the close catching. They learned how to chase runs, led by the captain, W. E. J. Barrington, and S. J. P. Johnston, who were their best opening pair for years. Johnston also took 27 wickets. E. R. G. Heaslip took twenty-one catches and made eight stumpings as well as being a useful batsman. R. B. Fawssett (slow left-arm) took the most wickets, and K. P. Q. Rhodes (fast-medium left-arm) was an effective opening bowler. Westminster, Epsom, Hurstpierpoint and Brighton were all beaten, only Charterhouse defeating them.

Allhallows won against Kelly College, Wellington (Somerset) and Hardye's, and lost only to Queens's Taunton. They had a strong seam attack and fielded keenly. The captain, R. D. Higgs, set a fine example and S. C. Ellyatt made a remarkable debut as an opening bowler, taking 46 wickets. Monmouth had an enjoyable season of good cricket. After an early defeat by Millfield they did not lose again. There was batting depth, with a good opening pair in M. G. Davies and L. Benson who made century stands against Dean Close and Gloucestershire Etceteras, and they were supported by the captain, R. T. McCrone. Nottingham High School beat Stamford, Leeds, Cranbrook, Ratcliffe, Mill Hill and Denstone, though they lost to Queen Elizabeth's Wakefield. The batsmen did not score quickly, so half their twenty-four matches were drawn. The outstanding cricketer was slow right-arm bowler S. J. Turrill. Trent had six good wins and only one loss. C. H. Wiltshire, a left-hander, batted well and the leading bowlers were G. W. Rees (fast), R. A. Cobb (slow left-arm) and the captain, C. S. H. Smith (medium). They won two and drew three in a tour of Yorkshire. Uppingham possessed their best side since pre-war. Schools beaten were Oakham, Rugby, Oundle, and Shrewsbury. Haileybury just avoided defeat and Repton were led on the first innings but the second day was washed out. The outstanding performance was by J. P. Agnew, who took eight for 16 runs in the ten-wicket defeat of Oundle. Whilst everyone made valuable contributions, Agnew and C. J. Riley, a reliable opening bat, were the stars. Agnew won Representative honours and later played for Leicestershire. Wrekin had their most successful side ever against Schools, losing only to Denstone. They won ten, drew two in their favour and won all five on an East Anglian tour. They had a strong opening attack in R. S. Dutton and J. B. R. Jones, supported by the slow left-arm of C. P. Ross. Jones was a talented all-rounder (562 runs and 48 wickets), M. K. Perry took his aggregate total of runs to 1,800, and Dutton to 153 wickets. A. C. W. Douglas was an able wicket-keeper whose 30 wickets constituted a School record.

Bishop's Stortford scored a record number of runs. A. Bentall's aggregate reached 1,418 runs. They were bowled out only three times in eighteen matches, by Felsted, Sherborne and MCC. J. P. Ireland (medium) took 50 wickets. Framlingham, Aldenham, Chigwell and Monkton Combe were beaten. Queen's, Taunton had their finest season for many years, with six wins over Schools: Kingswood, Hardye's, Allhallows, Bristol Grammar School, Exeter, and Victoria Jersey. J. R. Greenwood (aged 16) scored 526 runs, and S. N. Patel and M. S. Riddle shared 81 wickets. Abingdon's captain, J. W. Slingsby, dominated the cricket with 1,003 runs, including four centuries. G. R. Halsey was a competent all-rounder and wins were achieved over Oratory, Berkhamsted, Reading, St Edward's Oxford, and University College School. Cranleigh had a good captain and successful batsman in I. R. Wilkie, and varied and accurate bowling. No School mastered slow left-arm M. P. Chase and G. C. W. Webb, backed up by the pacey F. R. Dethridge, who did the hat-trick against Eastbourne.

Marlborough had a happy season with four wins and three draws which were nearly wins. C. F. Worlidge, the captain, was an authoritative opener who captained the Southern Schools. There was a good all-round performance by S. J. Lillyman (647 runs and 33 wickets (off-spin)). R. M. A. Vyvyan was a successful inswinger and M. Stewart an efficient keeper. King's, Gloucester lost only one School match, against Bloxham, and had an excellent record against the strongest sides in the South West.

The following do not fall into any of the previous categories, and their season can be summed up as satisfactory or average: Westminster had high potential which batsmen like T. W. J. Bailey and S. J. B. Hamilton failed to fulfil. Bailey and R. Platt bowled usefully though there was little spin to support them. Bailey, the captain, made 101 not out against U.C.S. Shrewsbury: Rossall were the first School to beat them since 1974. Uppingham also beat them, but they won against Malvern and Rugby, and Charterhouse hung on for a draw. P. M. Fitzsimmons and G. F. Boys-Stones made centuries and the leg-spin of R. G. W. Marsh (seven for 36) beat Rugby. In fact, Shrewsbury had two leg-spinners, Boys-Stones and Marsh, who curiously finished with identical figures. Bradford Grammar School gave mixed performances. The captain P. A. Kellett, fast right-arm, took 51 wickets and batsman S. M. Hewitt averaged 40. There were two useful spinners, J. A. Wooller (slow left-arm) and S. R. Hartley (off-spin). The fielding was good, especially by Hewitt in the slips. Perse: most of their eight draws were in their favour. They were only once bowled out for under 100 – by Leys. Some of the best cricketers failed by 1977 standards, but the captain, A. F. Haydon, made over 50 five times.

Winchester were not a strong side, but of the four games lost against Schools, three went as far as the final over after a declaration. M. J. A. MacDonell topped both averages, making 100 not out against Clifton and bowling leg-spin. S. J. G. Doggart was a good captain. At Brentwood powerful batting was a feature, but they had only one penetrative bowler, fast-medium I. L. Pont, who took fifty wickets and also topped the batting.

Eton played keen and attractive cricket, but results were disappointing against the Schools, as they just failed to win against Charterhouse, Marlborough and Winchester. Opening batsman P. W. Morris (728 runs) developed well, and C. G. Crace (medium swing) was the best bowler. P. J. R. Goulber was an outstanding fieldsman. Millfield: in seven matches the result was in doubt until the last few overs. N. A. Felton (897 runs) was the outstanding batsman, scoring two consecutive centuries and excelling later in Representative cricket. R. P. H. Barker and M. J. Bamber batted well and J. Arnold was a good keeper. P. M. Freeth was a consistent bowler, but the side lacked both speed and spin. The younger element at St Lawrence, Ramsgate – I. R. Bond, S. J. Billings, P. E. Price and A. P. Barker – all did well. The captain, M. G. Marchant (fast) hit the stumps 26 times in taking 46 wickets. Merchiston's strong batting but weak bowling resulted in no wins against Schools. P. D. Barbour and the captain, J. A. Turnbull, were the leading batsmen, and Barbour was also a useful slow left-arm bowler. Opening bowlers N. H. Cairns and G. S. Simpson improved during the season, and R. A. Young was a fine wicket-keeper who later captained the Scottish Junior Colts. Hurstpierpoint: defeats by Eastbourne and Lancing marred an otherwise fair season.

C. Parmar was an outstanding all-rounder, twice taking seven wickets in an innings and making three not out 50s. The captain, N. R. J. Green, made 94 before lunch against MCC who were beaten. Denstone: five out of seven defeats in nine successive days reflected tired bowling and perhaps too much fielding. Earlier draws against Worksop, King Edward's Birmingham, and Shrewsbury were close and exciting. G. Morgan was the best of a strong batting side, and N. J. B. Illingworth a useful all-rounder.

Clifton improved during the season and their only School loss was against Cheltenham. They beat Marlborough, Colston's and Winchester, and played five close draws. C. R. Trembath was an outstanding all-rounder, batting No. 3 and bowling medium-pace, supported by the captain, another all-rounder, M. C. Arrindell (fast). Framlingham had a successful time until they lost three out of their last four games. Strong batting was led by N. J. Hindley, who made two centuries, and the side fielded keenly. King's, Canterbury were bowled out only once, but the batting lacked confidence. The captain, A. M. N. Rahman, was a powerful hitter and fast opening bowler, and his chief supporter was G. B. P. Breeze (medium swing). Three School games were rained off, and the only win was against K.C.S. Wimbledon. Malvern could not often rise to the occasion. They lost to Repton and Shrewsbury, and drew with Cheltenham, Clifton, Charterhouse, Radley and Rugby, though in these games they were often favourably placed. Monkton Combe were a young side who won seven matches against Schools, doing particularly well against Wycliffe and Dauntseys. M. J. C. Edwards was a good batsman/wicket-keeper and captain. A. J. M. Spear was the backbone of the batting, and the left-handed opener, I. C. Prest, usually gave the innings a good start. The leading bowler was off-spinner R. A. Leakey. Strathalan were a moderate side with an outstanding batsman/captain in M. J. Yellowlees, who made 138 not out against Fettes. The side had a good win against Glensmond. C. A. MacLeod and G. M. Stremmen bowled contrasting slow left-arm spin.

Eastbourne were a talented side who failed to realise full potential. P. R. Mansell (fast) and V. Patel (all-rounder) had moments of brilliance. The leading bowler was the captain, C. J. Lush (slow left-arm), who was also top batsman, and he earned Representative honours, taking nine for 70 for the Southern Schools v The Rest. Edinburgh Academy: brittle batting and lack of close catchers were serious weaknesses. J. D. Sutton made a maiden century against Denstone, and the captain, D. C. Hill, enjoyed the firmer pitches on a southern tour when he made 289 in five innings. Worksop drew five School games and suffered narrow losses against Repton and Wrekin. P. A. Shuttleworth and C. L. M. Best were the leading runmakers, each scoring a century; Best (left-arm fast-medium) was also the leading bowler. Sedbergh lost only to Pocklington, but won only against Barnard Castle and Lancaster R.G.S. Lack of penetrative bowling caused many draws. The captain, H. M. Allinson was an exciting bat, and A. M. Wright and W. R. Holdsworth were a sound opening pair.

King Edward VI, Southampton had a satisfactory season under J. C. Wright. R. R. Savage dominated the batting, and fast bowler G. P. J. Staples took 51 wickets, 32 of them bowled. Cheltenham were moderately successful, being unbeaten by Schools until the end-of-term festival. They batted second in all but two matches. The bowling contained the opposition, but the batting was not sufficiently positive. J. R. Lawton was an outstanding batsman, and A. D. Marsh (off-spin) and I. E. W. Sanders (medium pace) bowled well. KCS Wimbledon had a good season spoilt by too many draws. Strong batting was headed by a formidable opening pair, M. L. Allcock and J. Ashcroft who made nearly 1,200 runs between them. The side was happy under off-spinner S. P. L. Collins. St George's, Weybridge had a good season with four wins against Schools. N. Franklin was an inspired wicket-keeper and the medium-paced S. M. Neary has taken 112 wickets in the last three seasons. Durham had a better side than in 1977, with more wins than losses. C. J. Kingston and J. P. Bland carried the batting, and the bowling was steady, led by M. P. Manners and A. M. Bennett, both medium. The wins were against Fettes, Newcastle RGS and Whitehaven, and losses against St Peter's York, St Bede's and Pocklington. King's, Taunton: the highlight of the season was the defeat of Millfield, the first by any School for thirteen years. They lost only to King's Bruton – by four wickets – and they tied with Christ's Hospital off the last ball.

Dauntseys were fairly successful. G. N. H. Lower was a shrewd wicket-keeper/captain. The chief batsmen were D. A. Scott and M. O. Parish, and the most effective bowlers were A. D. Leng (medium) and T. L. Hardingham (fast-medium). Birkenhead were disappointed to lose their last two games after handsome wins. They were badly hit by the weather. They had promising cricketers in the Varey twins, D. W. an opening bat, and J. G. an all-rounder.

M. Hennock (slow left-arm) and S. M. Winter (fast) both had good seasons. Canford were a good young side. R. P. Garnett (slow left-arm) has taken 105 wickets in the last three years. They lost to Sherborne and Taunton, the latter by only three runs, and they beat Blundells, Bryanston and King's Bruton. Cranbrook lost only once to a School. The batting was strong, with centuries from A. J. Fraser and S. D. Pugh. C. P. Wynter was a good wicket-keeper/captain. Dean Close won four matches and had the better of several draws. They owed most to successful all-rounders, the captain, T. G. Graveney (son of Tom), who took 38 wickets (off-spin) and made 476 runs, and W. R. K. Thomas - 678 runs and 32 wickets.

Hardye's improved after four early losses. They won three against Schools and were on top in five draws. Their strength was in seam attack - the captain, P. S. Beer (fast left-arm), P. S. Frost (medium pace) and J. C. Dixon (left-arm medium). Dixon was also a good all-rounder, and the side maintained an over rate of over 20. Ellesmere, though beaten by strong club sides lost to only one School - Denstone - and several draws were in their favour. They had batting weaknesses, but the captain, R. F. Smail batted well and in three seasons has taken 95 wickets, at fast-medium. King's, Bruton lost their first two games and were then unbeaten. They had batting depth and a strong seam attack, led by A. D. Jenkins and M. R. Doggrell (fast-medium). The highlights of the season were a not-out century by R. W. A. Yateaman against Sevey's Grammar School, a fine innings of 86 by G. M. C. Corder against Clayesmore, and eight for 27 by Jenkins against Milton Abbey. Magdalen College School, Oxford played attacking cricket, relying largely on the captain, C. W. B. Anstey, but the bowling often lacked penetration. There were easy wins over Bloxham, Reading and St Edmund's Ware. The feature of a nine wicket win over King Edward's, King's Lynn was an opening stand of 175. Ratcliffe's young side had an enjoyable season in which they were well led by M. Thistlethwaite. Good cricket was played, but there were many draws. Warwick lost only twice against Schools - Rugby and Solihull. There were victories over Denstone, King Edward's Birmingham, Bloxham, Dean Close and Handsworth. The side was based on five good cricketers, the captain, P. M. Ryan, G. A. Lammie, wicket-keeper/batsman G. A. Tedstone, G. J. Lord (all-rounder and slow left-arm), and S. C. Davis (in-swing).

William Hulme, after a pre-season Caribbean tour when they won three, lost three and drew three, lost to only one School, King's Macclesfield, and beat Rydal, Queen Elizabeth's Wakefield and Birkenhead, due to fine bowling by P. A. Rainford (fast) and N. J. Lord (left-arm seam). S. P. Dickinson was a promising opening bat and at short leg H. S. Davies took some excellent catches. Blundells had an entertaining side of hard-hitters, athletic fielders, but weak bowlers. Leading all-rounders were N. S. Brown and G. P. Randall-Johnson. Five Schools put them in and played for a draw, an unpopular tactic and bad for cricket, but of these five Blundells won two and drew two. Oundle were rebuilding, but they won four and lost only two to Schools. K. I. Hodgson, the captain, was unfit until half-term, after which he made four centuries. Losses against Schools were the first since 1974. They were bowled out for 29 by Uppingham's J. P. Agnew (eight for 16) but in revenge they beat them in their end-of-term festival. Oundle were the only school to beat Bedford. Alleyns - the captain, R. Maharasingam, was a fine all-rounder, left-hand bat and left-arm slow bowler, who has made 1,196 runs and taken 82 wickets in four seasons. He instilled good team spirit. Wins were recorded over Westminster, Emanuel, and Reigate, against whom M. Banfield (fast-medium) took eight for 15.

St Edward's, Oxford: the bowling was unable to back up good batting. There was lack of pace and no off-spin, with the result that only one side was bowled out. N. R. Chaumeton showed all-round ability in making not-out centuries against Stowe and Oundle, and he took seven for 77 against Abingdon, bowling fast-medium. Bradfield lost heavily to Charterhouse, Winchester and Eton, and the only School beaten was Westminster. The leading cricketers were S. N. Lee, whose aggregate of 577 was the highest for five years, and R. T. Helm, whose off-spin suffered from captaincy cares. King Edward's, Birmingham did not bat with conviction, nor bowl with penetration nor field too well. C. John captained well but batted inconsistently. S. E. Fletcher was an effective leg-spinner, but both he and John suffered from injuries. At Fettes wins against Glenalmond, George Watson's and Loretto compensated for losses against Durham and Edinburgh Academy. The leading cricketers were B. B. White (off-spin), M. D. Stephen (medium) and P. J. Orr (all-rounder). Highgate had a poor season, but there were good performances by C. R. B. Nichol (off-spin), six for 46 against Haileybury, the captain, J. R. Green, three 50s, and N. R. Jacobs, 85 against Dulwich.
